ida Fox Hunters Association, National Numismatic Association, and Florida Institute of Park Executives.

ED FRASER THE CHURCHMAN—

Member of the Methodist Church, Superintendent of Sunday School at Macclenny. One of two Sunday School Superintendents chosen to address national meeting of Sunday School Superintendents.

ED FRASER THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE—

Ed Fraser was chosen as the nominee of the Democratic Party for State Comptroller by the State Democratic Executive Committee receiving almost two-thirds of the votes cast by the Committee. Ed Fraser was duly elected by the people of the State of Florida as Florida's Comptroller in the General Election. Ed Fraser was prevented from assuming the office of Comptroller and serving the people as Comptroller by a technicality. This technicality has now been removed.

Florida Newspapers say about Edwin G. (Ed) Fraser:

Tampa Morning Tribune—Mr. Fraser is, by his record, able, conscientious, and trustworthy.

Tallahassee Democrat—Senator Fraser will make a good comptroller.

Union County Times—The name of State Senator Fraser is the trademark of a good man for the job.

Ft. Myers News-Press—Senator Edwin Fraser has a good record as a public official and seems well qualified for the job.

Orlando Free Press—Fraser is considered an able public officer. He is young, aggressive. He is widely known and popular.

Miami Herald—Senator Fraser has fine native capabilities and a business experience which should serve him and the State well.
